DEVI RATN

JAIPUR
OPENING 2010

DESTINATION

Rajasthan brings to mind a land full of colour, vibrance and cultural splendour. Devi Ratn located in Jaipur has a vocabulary of design that looks inwards at this rich source for inspiration. Devi Ratn takes its name from the "Nav Ratn"; nine pure gemstones that are said to focus the cosmic energy of an associated celestial body, ruled by a deity. The lustrous gem-craft of Jaipur, is reflected in the materials used and the intricate quality of detail in public and private spaces.

The sculptural astronomical devices of Jantar Mantar, made in the early eighteenth century, were the starting point for the architects for an interpretation of modern Rajasthan. The ancient observatories were truly ahead of their times in accuracy, scale and grandeur. Taking forward this spirit, the all suite Devi Ratn boutique hotel is a place that combines lyrical spaces with bold architecture. Domes and arches rise out on the horizon, towering structures in red sandstone filter the light of the sun creating patterns on the ground as you approach this inspired destination.

ACCOMMODATION

A Suite

All the 63 suites at Devi Ratn are celebrations of textures, patterns, latticework and color. Planned along crescent shaped streets at varying heights, every suite is ensured a view of the Aravali mountains. Vibrant gemstone hues, unique black and white terrazzo flooring and traditional bay windows for seating, distinguish the spaces. Each suite while equipped with modern amenities and presenting a contemporary look, retains the traditional elements of comfort and service that make you feel at home.

The Villas are set in an enclosed courtyard, each with a private pool and jacuzzi. The 1900 sq. ft. Villas are based on themes of metal – copper, brass and silver. The interiors are crafted with intricate inlay, hammered metal surfaces and mirror-work. Each villa has a deluxe suite above which can be accessed separately. The bathrooms have a black river stone finish with a white marble sunken bath tub and a rain shower.

The Luxury suites are on the outermost crescent and have a glorious view of the sunrise on the hills. The rooms are 700 sq. ft. each and open onto a private garden. A necklace of intricate pattern follows you around the room, along the walls, creating surfaces for seating and furniture.

The Deluxe suites of 600 sq. ft. have interiors done in shades of ruby red, coral orange, emerald green and yellow sapphire. Geometric adaptations transform traditional paintings into a new form of visual art that enlivens the space. Each suite has an attached private garden on the rooftop.

The 550 sq. ft. Executive suites are situated in the middle crescent and retain a view of the mountains. Discover a modern interpretation of a painted toy box which houses various amenities. It pivots and slides open to reveal the mini bar, tea-coffee maker.

CELEBRATION

The conference room is a white marble cube within a courtyard that exudes a sense of calm tranquility. Layers of material are used in a manner that retains a sense of openness and transparency, making it a venue that is inspiring for new ideas.

Below the conference hall is the banquet room, in stylishly understated tones of silvery grey. A crystal chandelier travels the length of the room creating a sparkling venue ideal for weddings and conferences. For large numbers, the outdoor banquet lawn is ideally set within a lush sculptural landscape.

The Bar uses the gentle movement of lights to create a sense of the night-sky where the cosmos seems to envelop you. Enjoy the selection of wines and mouth watering finger food, in this celestial ambience. Step out on to the bar deck and a mist fountain creates an ephemeral mood; a feeling of being among swirling clouds in the moonlight.

If you are looking for cuisine with subtle flavours and unique Asian and Continental recipes, you will find it served in the shimmering silver and gold ambience of the Restaurant. The chef rustles up divine combinations from fresh ingredients, organically farmed in our kitchen gardens. Salads of Indian origin mix with western herbs to create a whole new palette of health foods. Alternately, there is the Poolside Cafe, made in layers of glass arches like a modern glass palace. Special dining is also possible at various rooftop venues or the Pavillion; the highest vantage point on the property.

RELAXATION

The 12000 sq. ft. Spa is a quiet and meditative place of rejuvenation. Stress ebbs away and contentment is enhanced. Based on the architecture of an Indian step-well, the pace of life slows as you descend into an all white space where the sound of water soothes you. Get pampered by fusion wellness treatments and massages that use a delicate mix of Indian herbs with Western spa techniques. Beauty treatments that combine flower essences and herbal aromas restore the balance of forces within your body. Emerge with all your senses awake to experience life in a new way.

Unwind by the lotus patterned pool with a cool jasmine sherbet or for some undisturbed sunbathing, there is the roof of the café. Enjoy activities like horse riding, camel safaris, kite flying and astrology.

The Devi Design shop has an interesting range of souvenirs. The selection presents a unique exploration of Indian design in metal, stone, wood and textile.
