

BARAHI JUNGLE LODGE

ACTIVITIES LIST

Jeep Safari in Chitwan National Park

Jeep Safaris is a must to experience when in Chitwan national park. Covering over 30 kms of forests in its best of grassland, Riverine and Sal habitat the safaris open a good chance to explore the distinguished flora and fauna of each. The safari starts from across the River, after a small boat ride and we enter the park from Bhimle post. There are three choices of routes available, which our naturalists pick upon their experience on current sightings and animal movement.

Route 1: Bhimle post- Sukhibhar post towards Kasra

Route 2: Bhimle post- Reu River- SurungKhola

Route 3: Bhimle Post- Reu River- Tiger tops- towards Khorla Mohan Post

If jeep safaris are not included in your plan, then you may book yourself a safari with us by contacting your naturalist or reception. The Jeep Safari can be organized, subject to availability of jeeps.

Jungle Walk

A walk inside the National park accompanied by an experienced naturalist and nature guide. The Total distance covered during morning jungle walk is 5-7 kms, you may also option for full day or half day jungle walk, with packed lunch. The jungle walk can be organized, subject to availability of naturalists.

Life in a day of Tharus

A 15 kilometer long walks in the national park through various habitats that starts early morning and concludes with a lunch at Madi village of Tharus, Chitwan's most famous Tharu village. Return to the lodge, while doing a jeep safari in the central side of the park.

Boat Safari with Breakfast Or Sundowner

Floating downstream the Rapti River, towards the western boundary of the park formed by Himalayan Narayani, boat safari can be arranged in morning or evening time offering our unique morning breakfast & sundowner experience at the confluence point.

Boat Safari Only

Floating downstream the Rapti River, towards the western boundary of the park formed by Himalayan Narayani, boat safari can be arranged in morning or evening time with experienced naturalist up to confluence point.

Tharu Cultural Walk

A walk through the Tharu village, emphasizes on the know-how of their centuries old traditions and skills that still hold significance. For a deeper knowledge of this unique Terai culture, Tharu cultural walk will give you a chance to visit a community run museum in the company of an experienced communicator and then visiting a Tharu house of present times to give first hand experience of their self-sustained present way of living.

Short Village Visit

A foot visit around the village to experience the daily life of the village people in the company of an experienced communicator to enhance knowledge on the life of Tharu people.

Lunch by the Riverside

A small picnic served with cold lunch setting, can be enjoyed around the boundaries of national park, at the banks of Narayani River.

Bush Dinner

For a lifetime dinner experience in a natural setup inspired by the nature around us, a bush dinner can be organized with live barbeque. The well lantern lit dinner under the sky full of stars in seclusion while you can feel the grass under your feet, and let the breeze take your breath away!

