Location

A stunning 200 year old hilltop fort-palace which has been beautifully restored in a very different and contemporary style. A rambling building, with spacious gardens and superb views, overlooking the surrounding hills and village below. Situated in the heart of the countryside, just north of Udaipur. One of India's finest and only true 'boutique' hotels.

Accessibility

By Air: To Udaipur, from Delhi, Bombay, Jodhpur, Jaipur. Followed by a 45 minute car journey.

By Train: To Udaipur, from Ajmer, Chittorgarh, Ahmedabad and Delhi. Followed by a 45 minute car journey.

By Road: An easy drive from Deogarh, Narlai, Shapura, Bhainsrorgarh, Dungarpur, Ghanerao, Bambora, Kishangarh. A longer drive from Jodhpur, Rohet, Nimaj, Jaipur.

Transfers: The resort is happy to arrange transfers (at extra cost) from either the airport or the railway station to / from the hotel.

Accommodation

Accommodation comprises 39 suites .There are 7 twin-bedded rooms. The remaining rooms are all doubles.

1 Devi Garh Suite Complex – The premium suite complex at Devi Garh consists of two bedrooms (the smaller one being one of the Palace suites). The larger, Devi Garh suite has its own private sun deck, Jacuzzi and kitchenette. The Devi Garh suite and this Palace suite share a common, private, black marble swimming pool. The two rooms are available for booking either together or individually.

5 Aravali Suites – These are superbly spacious suites with separate sitting / dining areas. One is split on two levels. Large bathrooms of marble and teak.

16 Palace Suites – Stunning, spacious and individually designed rooms with either bay windows or balconies and large bathrooms of marble and teak.

17 Garden Suites – charming but slightly smaller bedrooms, situated in the garden, below the swimming pool. They all have private and spacious verandahs which are very comfortably furnished. Predominantly green and white marble and teak.

All 39 suites have spectacular views of either the valley, the courtyard, the gardens or surrounding fields. They are centrally air-conditioned, have overhead fans, hairdryers and attached bathrooms with double basins. The rooms are exquisitely decorated, predominantly in white marble and with spots of colour reflecting the rich colours seen throughout Rajasthan. All rooms (excluding the tents) have CD players, televisions and DVD players, in-room safes, separate marble bath tubs and shower cubicles, minibars, tea and coffee making facilities, and internet access. On account of the building not being purpose built, all rooms vary in shape, size and design. The rooms are scattered around the building on various floors. There is a lift which provides easy access for wheelchairs but due to the building being constructed on so many levels, wheelchair access is not possible in all areas. There is also central heating for particularly cold nights. Hot water is plentiful. 2 bottles of complimentary mineral water per person per day are provided in the bedrooms. No smoking rooms are available. Soft drinks are included in the daily room rate.???

Dining

There is one restaurant and one Bar which is beautifully decorated, light and airy and overlooks the pool and distant hills. It offers Indian, Continental and Oriental cuisine. The hotel offers a buffet, table d’hote and a la carte dining. It is also possible to order snacks by the pool, on the open air terrace overlooking the pool and room service is readily available. Private dinners can also be arranged almost anywhere in the palace – you just name your place and time and the table will be set up for you, together with parties around the palace. Smoking is allowed. There is an excellent wine list and dedicated Spa menus available.

When to go / Climate	Rajasthan has some major climactic fluctuations. During December, January and February, it can be cold in the mornings and evenings and warm clothes are necessary at these times. During the daytime it is lovely and warm and sunny. March and April are getting fairly hot and it begins to get humid in May and June and temperatures can rise to an intense and uncomfortable heat. The monsoon breaks in July and lasts until September. October and November are still warm but not cold or wet. The best time to visit is from October to early April. It is generally a dry heat with very little humidity.
Opening and closing	The hotel remains open 365 days per year.
Pests	Due to the dry heat of Rajasthan, mosquitoes are not a major problem but they do tend to come out in the evenings and early mornings, throughout the year and particularly in the warmer months. The hotel provides mosquito coils and repellents in the rooms to combat this.
