Location

Jawai has the most fabulous location in an open bowl, surrounded by craggy rock formations, in one of the prettiest areas of the Aravalli Hills in South-Western Rajasthan. It is an area rich in flora and fauna and has, for centuries, been inhabited by the colourful Rabari clan. These shepherds are distinctive by their head dresses and live very closely with nature. The Camp lies minutes upstream of Jawai Bandh (dam), one of western Rajasthan's largest water reservoirs and a sparkling attraction for an array of migratory birds, including flamingos, geese and cranes. Being in the heart of 'leopard country', leopards are Jawai's predominant attraction and a thriving population of these felines has always roamed across this region. The views are sublime and the famed sites of Kumbhalgarh Fort and the Jain Temples of Ranakpur are only a short drive away. Jawai's beautifully remote location, combined with the unique flavour and customs of this land, provide an entirely different, rural wildlife experience from other parts of Rajasthan. It, therefore, fits perfectly into any itinerary taking in western Rajasthan and provides a refreshing, unique break from the more urban tourism of the cities. An idyllic place to switch off and walk and rest and re-charge.

Accommodation

Jawai Leopard Camp has 9 double tented suites, of which 3 can be converted to twin beds. One is a tented suite which is slightly further away and comprises 2 tents adjacent to each other. It is perfect for couples or families who want more space and privacy. Each tent is designed with an elegant, stylish use of pale canvas, stainless steel and leather goods. There is comfortable seating and a desk and each has a verandah which looks out over grassland, light woodland and the dramatic rock formations that denote this area. They have a contemporary feel and are predominantly black and white with flashes of brilliant colour (Rabari Red!) to lift the interiors. They are sumptuous in every way and ooze style and luxury and space and indulgence. Nothing has been overlooked.

The tents have excellent attached shower rooms, air-conditioning and heating. Hot water bottles can be provided on cold nights. Hot water is plentiful and provided by geyser. Hair dryers and bath robes are provided. Two bottles of complimentary mineral water per person per day are provided daily. There are no televisions nor wi-fi / internet access. There is a safety deposit box in each tent. The tents have easy access for wheelchairs and are non-smoking.

The daily room rate includes all meals, soft drinks, house wine, beer and game drives.

Dining

An inviting dining tent offers delicious local, continental and oriental cuisine with general meal times being fairly flexible to suit individual guests and their daily activities. Breakfast is usually buffet style with lunch and dinner being a la carte or table d'hote.

Children

The resort accepts children of all ages. One child may be accommodated in their parent's bedroom for an extra charge. There is a baby sitting service available.

Dress Code

There is no official dress code and it is extremely relaxed here. However, when out gameviewing, we suggest dark and muted clothing (i.e. Shades of Khaaki and Green) that will not show up too much against the vegetation. The temperatures during the morning drive can be icy-cold (2 degrees Celcius in December-January) so do carry a very warm coat and sweaters. Tough, outdoor shoes for gameviewing are essential. Due to the sophisticated nature of the camp, guests tend to change out of daytime / dusty clothes, in the evenings.

Check-in / Out Time	Check-in is at 13.00pm. Check-out is at 11.00am. Extended check-out is subject to negotiation / availability.

Mobile Telephones	Mobile telephones do work but it is requested they be kept on silent when at the Camp so as not to disturb the peace.
When To Go / Climate	Rajasthan has some major climactic fluctuations. During December, January and February, it can be very cold in the mornings and evenings and warm clothes are necessary at these times. During the daytime it is lovely and warm and sunny. March and April are getting fairly hot and it begins to get humid in June and temperatures can rise to an intense and uncomfortable heat. The monsoon breaks in July and lasts until September. October and November are still warm but not cold or wet. The best time to visit is from October to April. It is generally a dry heat with very little humidity, except during the months of September and early October. NOTE: It is very cold in the early mornings when going gameviewing during the months of late November to February and warm jackets and woolens/thermals are essential at this time.
Opening and Closing	The camp is open all year round.
Pests	Due to the dry heat of Rajasthan, mosquitoes are not a problem but they do tend to come out in the evenings and early mornings, in the warmer months. The hotel provides mosquito coils, nets and repellents in the tents to combat this and when dining outside. It is not advisable to leave the tent flaps open without the insect mesh fastened, when your lights are on as bugs will tend to fly in.
